

- Students who turn in their sold Gaudiosa Raffle Tickets by the end of the school day today will receive a dress down day later in the semester. Collection will be set up in the cafeteria during all lunch periods.
- Tiger Baseball opened up its 2017 Pre-Season Classic with an 11-7 win over Winter Haven. Drew Martin earned the win and Price Sartor the save. Offensively, the Tigers were led by Mcguire Weaver, Jake Jones, Duncan Hunter, and Garrett Sheppard who each had 2 hits. Jones also added a home run and finished with 4 RBI'S. The Tigers play tonight against Trinity Christian, first pitch is at 7:00pm. Congrats and good luck Tiger Baseball!
- Varsity Basketball's season ended last night with a 80-76 loss to Booker despite Stevie Darst's incredible 39 point performance. Congratulations Tigers on an excellent 22-5 season!

Thursday, February 16, 2017

Day 1 Order 3

- Intramural action resumes today. Check the Student Life Canvas page for game sites and updated standings.
- Students who turn in their sold Gaudiosa Raffle Tickets by the end of the school day tomorrow will receive a dress down day later in the semester.
- Come out to the Tiger Palace tonight at 7:00 as the basketball team battles Sarasota Booker in the Regional Quarterfinals. Good luck Tiger Basketball!

- Attention all juniors attending this weekend's Leadership Retreat – please remain in the gym after convocation.
- Intramural action resumes tomorrow. Students may wear intramural dress to school. Check the Student Life Canvas page for game sites and updated standings.
- Seniors who have not already done so should stop by the MPR periods one through five to get fitted for their graduation tuxedo.
- Orders are still being accepted for the 2016-17 Tiger Yearbook. Students who order by February 28th can reserve their book at a discounted price. Instructions for can be found under QuickLinks on the Jesuit homepage.
- Come out to the Tiger Palace tomorrow night at 7:00 as the basketball team battles Sarasota Booker in the Regional Quarterfinals. Good luck Tiger Basketball!

Tuesday, February 14, 2017

Day 5 Order 1

- Juniors and seniors who have previously made a Kairos retreat are asked to stop by Campus Ministry today.
- Senior graduation tuxedo fittings take place today and tomorrow in the MPR periods one through five.
- Last night Tiger Hockey defeated Newsome 5-1 in the first round of the playoffs. Paul Coats got the victory in net and Trent Gephart, Nolan Forrest, Nino Lopez, Kyle Repar and Joshua Burke scored goals. The Tigers are back in action again tomorrow night versus Wiregrass Ranch at 8:15. Good luck Tiger Hockey!

- Attention all seniors – graduation tuxedo fittings will take place in the MPR tomorrow and Wednesday. During your free period or lunch you should go to the MPR – the process will only take a few minutes.
- Over the weekend Tiger musicians competed in solo and ensemble districts. Drew Hanis, Robert Morrison and Jack Wernet received the rating of excellent; Carson Sutton, Jake Greenwell, Freddie Brinson, Alex Good, Christopher Rodriguez and Chandler Rodriguez received the highest rating of superior. Brinson and Sutton also qualified for state level competition. Congratulations Tiger musicians!
- Tonight Tiger Hockey faces off against Newsome at the Ice Sports Forum in the first round of the Lightning Cup playoffs. Puck drop is set for 8:30 pm. Good luck Tiger Hockey!
- On Friday and Saturday JV Wrestling competed in the JV State Invitational against 39 teams from across the state. Tim Eberly finished second, Billy Gibbs placed third, and Jack McGill placed sixth. Congrats JV Wrestling!
- On Saturday, JV Lacrosse defeated Barron Collier 11-5. Nick Deptula and Michael Schellman each had a hat trick; Sam Knopik, Max Hernandez, Jack Snellgrove, Nick Sweet and Wilson Ward also scored. The Tigers face off again on Saturday versus Sarasota Riverview. Congrats and good luck JV Lacrosse!
- Last Friday night varsity basketball defeated Spoto 74-54 to capture the 6A-9 District Championship. Thierry Moliere scored 20 points and dished out 7 assists, and Lucas Uzdavinis added 18 points led the Tigers to their 6th consecutive district title. The Tigers were also keyed by Will Anderson's 10 big rebounds and Stevie Darst's 12 points and 7 assists. On Thursday night the Tigers play Sarasota Booker in the Tiger Palace in the Regional Quarterfinals. Congrats Tiger Basketball!