

- Homecoming Fun Day takes place tomorrow. Students may wear intramural dress to school. Be sure to check the Student Life Canvas page for a full list of activities throughout the day – Bocce, Cooking Class, Corn Hole, FIFA, Ping Pong, and Ultimate Frisbee are still accepting registrations. See the faculty organizer listed to sign up. Dismissal will be at 1:00.
- Today is the deadline to turn in payments for the Homecoming Dance. Payment can be turned in during lunch periods in the cafeteria.
- Make plans to attend tonight's Homecoming Pep Rally at 7:00, which will feature performances by the Tiger Band, cheerleaders, and Jaguarettes. The 2017 Homecoming Court will be recognized, as will Varsity Football Seniors. Student Council is sponsoring a dating gameshow where one lucky couple can earn free tickets to the dance.
- The Testing Center will not be open tomorrow due to Fun Day.
- Attention all sophomores, juniors and seniors – your help is needed to be a group leader for the upcoming Freshmen Freedom and Brotherhood retreat. Community service hours are available. Sign up on the Student Life Canvas page. See Fr Hough or Mr Shoup with any questions.
- Attention all students – there are limited spots remaining on the next service immersion trip to Belle Glade, Florida. The trip will be from next Friday, October 20th until Sunday, October 22nd. See Fr. Hermes if you are interested in participating.
- Attention all freshmen, sophomores and juniors – registration is now open for the 2018 European Pilgrimage. See Fr. Hough with any questions.
- Attention all seniors who have made a Kairos retreat – please stop by Campus Ministry today for a small gift.
- There will be a brief informational meeting in Faber Hall after school tomorrow for students interested in playing soccer this season. See Coach Rupp with any questions.

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

- Tomorrow is the deadline to turn in payments for the Homecoming Dance. Payment can be turned in during lunch periods in the cafeteria.
- Make plans to attend tomorrow night's Homecoming Pep Rally at 7:00, which will feature performances by the Tiger Band, cheerleaders, and Jaguarettes. The 2017 Homecoming Court will be recognized, as will Varsity Football Seniors. Student Council is sponsoring a dating gameshow where one lucky couple can earn free tickets to the dance.
- Tomorrow will be an Order 2 for Club Meetings. Check the Clubs module on the Student Life Canvas page for meeting times and locations.
- The photography club will meet before school tomorrow from 7:30-7:55 in the Fr. Doyle Room.
- Attention Student Council homeroom reps – this is a reminder that there is a meeting tomorrow morning in room 101 at 7:30 to finalize homecoming plans.
- The Testing Center will not be open today due to the PSAT and Friday due to Fun Day.
- Attention all sophomores, juniors and seniors – your help is needed to be a group leader for the upcoming Freshmen Freedom and Brotherhood retreat. Community service hours are available. Sign up on the Student Life Canvas page. See Fr Hough or Mr Shoup with any questions.
- There will be a brief informational meeting in Faber Hall after school on Friday for students interested in playing soccer this season. See Coach Rupp with any questions.

- Tomorrow freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will take the PSAT – regular school dress code is required. Seniors have the day off. Students should report to their specified classroom by 8:00. Classroom assignments are posted on the Student Life Canvas page and on the doors of buildings 1, 2, 3, and the cafeteria. The PSAT should finish between 11:00 and 11:30. Freshmen and juniors will be dismissed after their exam. Sophomores will remain for the Sophomore Pin Ceremony.

Please be sure to report to school on time. You should have number 2 pencils and a calculator.

- Homecoming Dance payment can be turned in today in the cafeteria during lunches; Thursday is the deadline to register and pay.
- Make plans to attend Thursday night's Homecoming Pep Rally, which will feature performances by the Tiger Band, cheerleaders, and Jaguarettes. The 2017 Homecoming Court will be recognized, as will Varsity Football Seniors. Student Council is sponsoring a dating gameshow where one lucky couple can earn free tickets to the dance.
- There are still a few spots remaining in the Fun Day Dodgeball Tournament; registration will remain open on the Student Life Canvas Page in the Homecoming module until Friday.
- Sign up for the Fun Day Bocce Tournament continues today. The cost is $10 for a two man team with all donations to the Thanksgiving Food Drive. There are a limited number of slots so sign up in the Library today.
- La Gente is sponsoring a FIFA tournament on Fun Day. Sign up with Mr. Cruz in Room 501. The cost is $5.00
- SADD is hosting a Corn Hole tournament on Fun Day. The entry cost is $10 per two man team with all proceeds benefiting the Thanksgiving food drive. The sign-up sheet is posted on the door of Room 204 – see Mrs. Maguire with any questions.
- The GOONS are hosting a Ping Pong competition in room 209 Fun Day from 10:00 to noon. Bring $5 and pay at the door to participate.
- Sign up for Fun Day cooking class begins today in room 404. The menu is pancakes, waffles, omelets, and shrimp or chicken with rice. The cost is $6. Any questions, see Mrs. Collazo.
- Sign up for the Fun Day Frisbee Tournament begins today – bring a roster of 5 players and up to 3 alternates and the $10 entry fee to Mr. Stibrich in room 205.
- The Testing Center will not be open tomorrow due to the PSAT and Friday due to Fun Day.
- Last night Varsity Bowling defeated Indian Rocks Christian 3-1. Ethan Sutton rolled a 218, Greg Davis bowled a 216 and Trace Nuss had a 203. Congratulations Tiger Bowlers!
- Yesterday Varsity Golf finished its regular season with a first place finish at the Seminole High School Invitational Tournament, shooting a season-low 306. Jimmy Paradise shot 79 and Max White shot 77. Connor Murphy and Grayson Maddox tied for 3rd place overall by each shooting 75. Congrats Varsity Golf!

- Homecoming Week continues tomorrow with Tacky Tuesday. Full details regarding the week have been messaged to all students on Canvas and are posted on the Student Life page.
- Homecoming Dance payment can be turned in today in the cafeteria during lunches; Thursday is the deadline to register and pay.
- Make plans to attend Thursday night's Homecoming Pep Rally, which will feature performances by the Tiger Band, cheerleaders, and Jaguarettes. The 2017 Homecoming Court will be recognized, as will Varsity Football Seniors. Student Council is sponsoring a dating gameshow where one lucky couple can earn free tickets to the dance.
- Registration for the Fun Day Dodgeball Tournament is still open on the Student Life Canvas Page in the Homecoming module. There are only five spots remaining. See Coach Shick with any questions.
- Sign up for the Fun Day Bocce Tournament continues today. The cost is $10 for a two man team with all donations to the Thanksgiving Food Drive. There are a limited number of slots so sign up in the Library today.
- La Gente is sponsoring a Fifa tournament on Fun Day. Sign up with Mr. Cruz in Room 501. The cost is $5.00
- The Testing Center will not be open on Wednesday due to the PSAT and Friday due to Fun Day.
- On Saturday, the Masque competed in the District 9 Thespian Festival at Blake High School, earning ratings of Excellent or Superior in 11 of 15 Individual Events. Xander Arena, Nicholas Asher, Tyler Brownrigg, Patrick Byrns, Chris Gold, Frank Kantor, Joseph Lopez, Jack Mahoney, Marino Matthews, Harrison Redd, Nico Smyth, Matthew Starkey, and Daniel Youakim earned Excellent ratings in Duet Acting, Solo Musical, Ensemble Acting, and Scene Design. The following earned Superior ratings and qualified for the State Thespian Festival in March:
 - George Morgan, Duet Acting and Monologues
 - Riley Buchanan, Duet Acting and Monologues
 - Jack Mahoney, Monologues
 - Jimmy Grammig, MonologuesCongratulations, Tiger Thespians!
- On Friday night the hockey team defeated previously unbeaten Eastern Manatee 7-4. Joshua Burke recorded 4 goals and Kyle Repar had a hat trick to lead the Tigers to victory. Paul Coats stood tall in net to get his fourth win of the season. Congratulations Tiger Hockey!
- Over the weekend Varsity Cross Country ran in Tallahassee at the FSU Pre-State Invitational. John Robbins ran a personal best of 16:28 for a 4th place finish; Oliver Petrillo, Wolf Louk, Patrick Krueger, Adam Dieke, and Donnie Beard also recorded personal bests. Congratulations Tiger Cross Country!