Stone and Dillion Lead Freshman Team to Victory!!

The freshman basketball team started Friday night's triple header action with a win over Clearwater Central Catholic by a score of 60-36. Blake Stone continued having the hot hand as he poured in double digit points while shooting over fifty percent from the field for the second straight game. Cameron Dillion controlled the glass with seventeen rebounds while adding 6 points and two blocks. Will McIntock led the team with five steals. The freshman basketball team plays at home again this Thursday against Cambridge Christian. Tip-off is 7:15 p.m.
