

New Streak Starts with Defeat of Tampa Catholic!!

The Jesuit swim team defeated the Tampa Catholic Crusaders Friday to restart their dominance in dual match competition. Having lost Thursday in a dual match for the first time in eleven years the Tigers were anxious to get back into the pool. Friday also marked the Tiger's, "Swim for The Cure," event in which money and awareness was raised for the fight against cancer. Nick Dwyer dedicated his five hundred yard freestyle event to his mother, a cancer survivor, and swam a personal best of 5:52.42. Ben Parker won both events he was entered in while Connor Bowen and Luiz Lima each took home victories in their respective events. Jesuit outscored the Crusaders one hundred and thirty eight to thirty one. The tigers get back into the pool October 20th against Bloomingdale at AHN pool. Meet starts at 6:30 p.m.
