

Labadini And Olsen Earn Weekly MAAC Honors

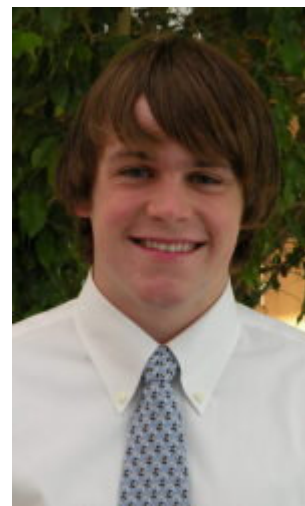

Labadini Receives Offensive Player of the Week, Olsen Nabs Rookie of the Week

March 10, 2009, Providence, R.I. - Providence College senior attackman Bobby Labadini (Westford, Mass.) and freshman attackman Evan Olsen (Tampa, Fla.) earned weekly MAAC honors for men's lacrosse on Monday, March 9. Labadini received Offensive Player of the Week while Olsen was named Rookie of the Week. It marks the first time that Labadini and Olsen have received a weekly MAAC award.

Labadini posted a career-high six points on five goals and an assist to lead the Friars in a hard-fought overtime loss at Yale, 11-10, on Thursday, March 5. The 6-1 senior's two consecutive goals midway through the third quarter gave Providence a 6-4 lead and his score with 2:57 to go tied the game at nine. Labadini leads the Friars with nine points on seven goals and two assists this season.

Olsen notched two goals versus the Bulldogs. His first score tied the game at four in the third quarter and his second goal gave PC a 7-5 lead early in the fourth quarter. The 5-10 attackman leads all Friar freshmen with three points on the year.

Providence returns to action on Wednesday, March 11 for a 3:00 p.m. contest with No. 6/8 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

Olsen Garnered Rookie Of The Week Honors