Former Jesuit distance-running standout Jordan Schilit, in his first season at Haverford College, posted the second-fastest eight-kilometer time among Division III freshmen at Friday's prestigious Paul Short Invitational at Lehigh University.

Schilit's time, a personal-best 25:07, placed him 126th overall in a meet featuring more than 40 college programs. Haverford placed 30th as a squad.

The only freshman in Haverford's top five, Schilit was the No. 2 finisher on his team.
