

Tim Nalls
Jesuit High School Varsity Assistant Coach

Tim Nalls is entering his seventh year as a Jesuit assistant baseball coach, his fourth year under Coach Richie Warren. Coach Nalls' primary focus is to work with the hitters and infielders. Coach Nalls grew up in Tampa having attended grade school at St. Lawrence. He graduated from Jesuit High School in 1997 having lettered in baseball for Coach John Crumbley for two years. Coach Nalls was the starting short-stop on the 1997 4A State Championship baseball team that was also named National Champions by Baseball America.

After his playing days were over at Jesuit, Coach Nalls attended the University of North Carolina - Charlotte on a baseball scholarship. He lettered four years and was named captain of the 2002 49er squad.

Coach Nalls has been married for three years to his wife Courtney. They have one beautiful child.

