Jesuit Seeks New Head Football Coach

Tampa (January 8, 2010) – Jesuit High School began a search for a new varsity head football coach, after Joe Ross announced today that he was stepping down. Ross has headed up the Tiger football program since 2005. “It has been a privilege to guide these young men as Jesuit’s coach the past five years,” said Ross. “We’ve accomplished a great deal and had a good run, but it’s time to look for new challenges.” The 2009 Tiger Squad posted a 9-2 mark and finished runner-up in District 5-2A.

Terry Rupp, Jesuit’s Athletic Director, commented, “We want to congratulate and thank Joe Ross, not only for his five years as head football coach , but also for his many years as an assistant coach. During his 20+ years of part-time and full-time service, Coach Ross has had a positive impact on the lives of hundreds of young men,” said Rupp. “Our task now is to find a coach who has the ability to build on the success of this storied program and at the same time serve the unique mission of Jesuit High School.”

Jesuit’s search begins immediately for the next coach to lead one of the oldest and most successful football programs in Hillsborough County. Interested candidates should send their resumes to Paulette Mack, the school’s registrar, at pmack@jesuittampa.org or by fax at 813-443-5445. A posting for the position may be found on the school’s website at www.jesuittampa.org.

Jesuit High School is a Catholic college preparatory school rooted in the Jesuit tradition of education. It has an enrollment of approximately 675. The school is situated on a 40 acre campus with recently renovated or new athletic facilities, including a state-of-the-art synthetic football field and new weight room.
