

ANNOUNCEMENTS - FRIDAY 4/19/24

- I. Attention all seniors who have signed up for the breakfast reception with Catholic Gators during first period today: Head straight to the MPR after Convocation.
- II. Do you have what it takes to be a Bocce champion? Can you beat Coach Kaiser and Coach Menendez? If so, sign up on Canvas for the Mission Drive Day Bocce Tournament. The cost is $10 per two-man team. Only 31 spots are available, so sign up now.
- III. The Masque opened its spring production of Into the Woods last night to a near sellout crowd in the Shembekar Auditorium. Tickets remain on sale for shows tonight at 7 and tomorrow at 1 and 7. Email Mr Miller before 2:30 today to get your student discount code and scan the QR code on show posters around campus to buy tickets.
- IV. During a tense intramural season, for homerooms have emerged victorious, securing themselves a T-Shirt fit for champions. Freshmen winners were Homeroom 109 of Preble and Cox, Sophomore winners were Homeroom 1228 of Roney and Ruiz, Junior winners were Homeroom 404 of Collazo and LaFrenier, and the Senior winners were Homeroom 206 of Noyes and Wood. Congratulations, intramural athletes!
- V. Last night. Varsity Lacrosse secured the district championship with an incredible 17-4 victory over Berkeley Prep. Their next game is Wednesday at home as they head into the regional quarterfinals. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Lacrosse!
- VI. On Wednesday afternoon, the tennis team won the district championship. Sebastian Johnson earned the individual District crown in singles and then teamed with Cade Holland to win the title-clinching match at Number 1 doubles. Also notching huge victories for the Tigers were Nicholas Hadley and Grant Newman. This is the tennis team's 27th district title in the last 30 years. Congratulations, Jesuit Tennis!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - THURSDAY 4/18/24

- I. Attention all students: Student Council will be holding a Student Forum today immediately after school. If you'd like to expand on your thoughts about the academic survey, either stop by or speak to your grade level Student Council Representative.
- II. Attention Seniors: This morning, you were sent a link to submit your senior quote for the yearbook. Submissions will be due by April 26th. See Mr. Finch with any questions.
- III. The Masque's spring production, Into the Woods, opens tonight. Come see only the second Jesuit musical in 25 years as David Miranda, Diego Garcia, Kai Gibron, Aedan Gregory, and many other Jesuit performers team up with actresses from five different schools to stage this Tony-award winning blockbuster. Shows are tonight and tomorrow at 7pm and Saturday at 1 and 7pm. Scan the QR code on the show posters around campus to purchase tickets. Email Mr. Miller (or see him around campus) to receive a discount code before your purchase.
- IV. The 2024-25 Pro-Life Club officers are as follows:
President – Carlos Lamoutte
Vice-President – Brady Kiser
Secretary – Gianluca Pasquotto
Treasurer – Tate Kiser
Communications – Aidan Agustines
March for Life Coordinator – Cade Holland
Congratulations and good luck to the new pro-life officers!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - WEDNESDAY 4/17/24

- I. Attention all students: Student Council will be holding a Student Forum tomorrow immediately after school. If you'd like to expand on your thoughts about the academic survey, either stop by or speak to your grade level Student Council Representative.

- II. Last night, Varsity Baseball defeated nationally ranked IMG 2-1. McCall Biemiller earned the win by throwing six innings and struck out 15. Kaden Waechter came in and struck out the last two batters to earn the save. On offense, Zane Pestalozzi had two hits and Noah Sheffield had a RBI double. With the win, the Tigers improve to 14-6. Next up is a matchup at nationally ranked Calvary Christian on Friday. First pitch is set for 7pm. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Baseball!

18

99

TAMPA, FLORIDA

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam

ANNOUNCEMENTS - TUESDAY 4/16/24

- I. Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camp is looking for 15-20 volunteers during the week of July 27th to work one-on-one with children ages 8 -17. MDA Summer Camp provides a unique experience for both campers and volunteers alike. Volunteer counselors are by campers' sides day and night so that they can get the full summer camp experience. Interested volunteers will need to interview with Coach Wood prior to applying to serve as a volunteer at MDA camp.
- II. Last night, JV Baseball concluded its season with a 6-1 victory over Inspiration Academy. On the mound, Brian Schultz, Liam Amoriello, Tyler Campillo, Sebastian Prieto, and Luca Pleasants combined to strike out 13 batters. Offensively, Ben Burke paced the Tiger offense with two hits and two RBIs while Nico Perez added another 2 RBIs. With the win, the team finished with a 23-2 overall record. Congrats on an outstanding season, JV Baseball!
- III. Last night at home, Track defeated Hillsborough, Jefferson, and Robinson. Individual event winners were Willy Suarez in the 100-meter dash, Daniel Dewey in the 1600 meter run, Gabe Alvarado-Borjas in the 400 meter hurdles, Lucas Rupp in the 800 meter run, Donovan Terry in the 200 meter dash, Gabriel Garcia in the 3200 meter run, Tucker Witte in the javelin, King Powell in the long jump, and Chance Haber in the pole vault. The Tigers will travel to Berkeley Prep on Friday to compete in the annual Private school Championship Meet. Congrats and good luck, Tiger Track and Field!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - MONDAY 4/15/24

- I. Attention all students: Student Council will be holding a Student Forum on Thursday immediately after school. If you'd like to expand on your thoughts about the academic survey, either stop by or speak to your grade level Student Council Representative.

- II. The Masque's spring production of the Broadway hit musical Into the Woods opens this Thursday in the Shembekar Auditorium. Tickets are $12 for general admission, but Jesuit students can receive a promo code for a $7 ticket. See the posters going up around campus this week to scan the QR code for ticket sales, and see Mr. Miller for your discount code.

- III. Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camp is looking for 15-20 volunteers during the week of July 27th to work one-on-one with children ages 8 -17. MDA Summer Camp provides a unique experience for both campers and volunteers alike. Volunteer counselors are by campers' sides day and night so that they can get the full summer camp experience. Interested volunteers will need to interview with Coach Wood prior to applying to serve as a volunteer at MDA camp.

- IV. Over the weekend, JV Baseball defeated Calvary Christian 8-5 on Friday and swept its double-header against Tampa Catholic by scores of 4-0 and 5-0 on Saturday. On Friday, Ben Burke was strong on the mound while Luca Pleasants closed out the final inning. Offensively, Hector Rivera and Christian Sheffield had two hits and two RBIs, and Jack Fults added two hits. In game one on Saturday, Eric Knowles led the team on the mound, striking out seven batters while Sebastian Prieto closed out the final inning. Max Parisi led the offense with two hits. In game two, Jack Fults struck out seven batters, and Hector Rivera pitched the final two shutout innings. Offensively, Brady Marshall had two hits and two RBIs, and Nico Perez also added two hits. Tonight, the team closes out its season at home against Inspiration Academy. Congrats and good luck, JV Baseball!