

ANNOUNCEMENTS - FRIDAY 5/9/25

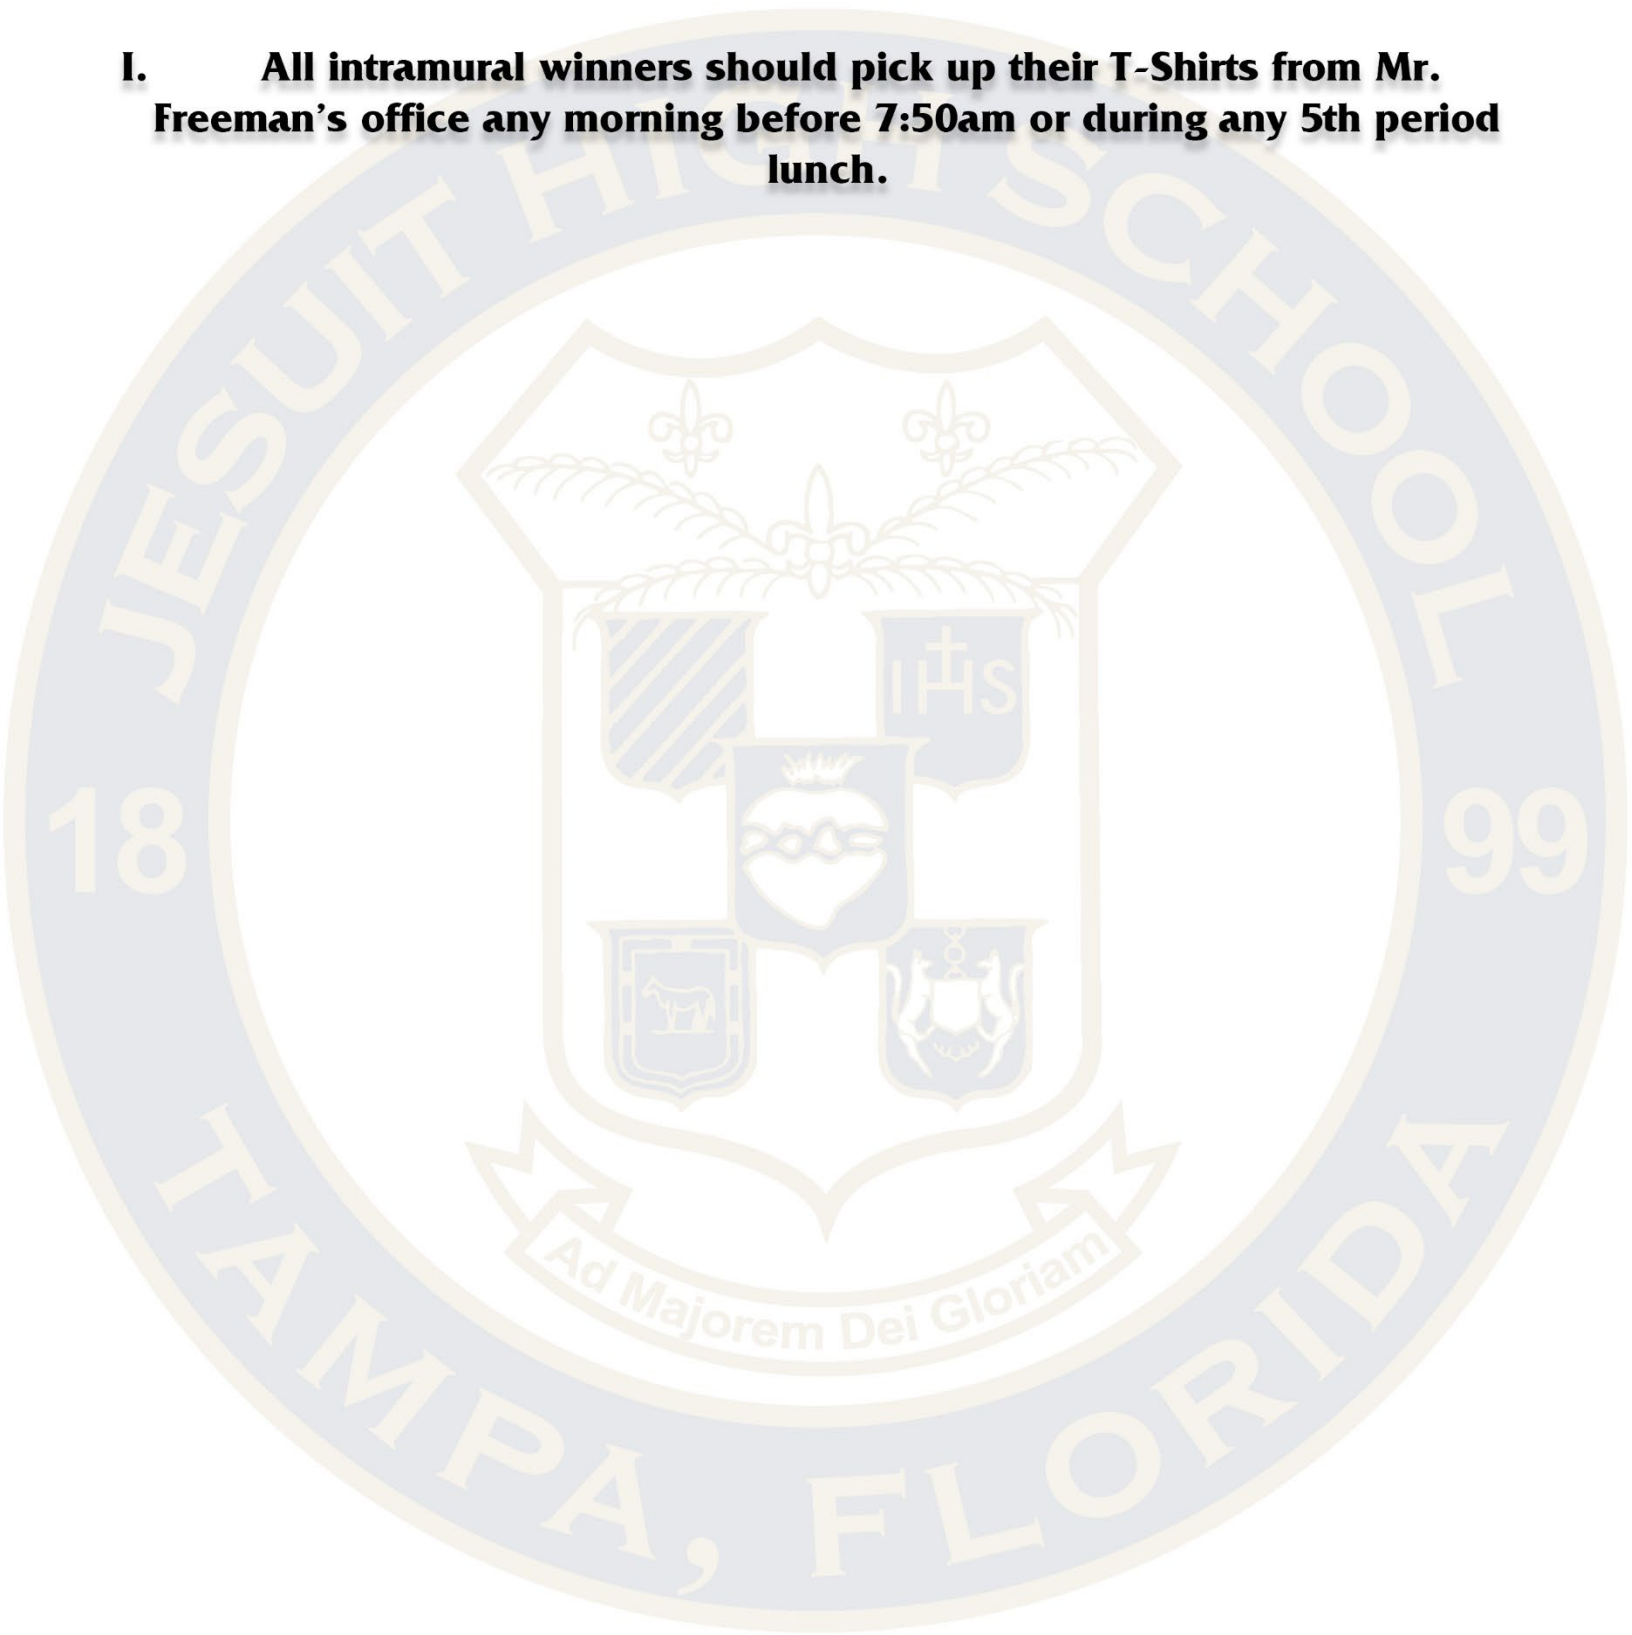

- I. All intramural winners should pick up their T-Shirts from Mr. Freeman's office any morning before 7:50am or during any 5th period lunch. These T-shirts will not be distributed during the next school year.

- II. Attention all students: The deadline to submit completed service hours for underclassmen is this Sunday, May 11th by 11:59pm.

ANNOUNCEMENTS - THURSDAY 5/8/25

- I. All intramural winners should pick up their T-Shirts from Mr. Freeman's office any morning before 7:50am or during any 5th period lunch.

ANNOUNCEMENTS - WEDNESDAY 5/7/25

- I. Attention all students: There will be no 5th period mass today.
- II. The Fine Arts Department and the administration office are proud to announce the winners of the 2025-26 Zipoli Organ Scholarship: Prentice Yeomans, class of '29; Ethan Buck, class of '28; and Joseph Cusimano, class of '27. These musicians will receive $6,000 towards tuition and private organ lessons. In addition, they will be leading the music during Sunday masses, all school masses, and other liturgies. Congratulations, Zipoli Organ Scholars!
- III. Last night, Varsity Baseball defeated Barron Collier 9-0 to win the Region Championship and advance to the state semifinals. On the mound, Kaden Waechter threw six shutout innings, striking out ten, and Ben Burke closed the game out with a pair of strikeouts. On offense, Kaden Waechter had two hits, Brody Smith hit a homerun, and Wilson Andersen went 4-4 to lead the way. With the win, the Tigers advance to State for the fourth consecutive year. They will play in the State semifinals on Monday, May 19th. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Baseball!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - TUESDAY 5/6/25

I. Following the Masque's hit production of Les Mis, five cast members were nominated for Outstanding Performance by Broadway Star of the Future. The complete list of winners has not been released, but, it was announced that Diego Garcia has been named one of the Top 12 Performers in a Lead Role and will perform in the Broadway Star of the Future showcase at the Straz Center, as he seeks a chance to move on to the National High School Musical Theatre Awards on Broadway. Congratulations and Break a Leg, Diego!

II. Last night, Varsity baseball defeated Barron Collier in Game 1 of the Region Final. Wilson Andersen threw a complete game shutout striking out 16 batters. On offense, Vincent DeCarlo had two hits, Kaden Waechter, Bryce Besece, and Christian Sheffield each homered and Wilson Andersen helped out his own cause on the mound by adding two doubles and a homerun. The Tigers look to win the region tonight in the last home game of the year. First pitch is set for 7pm and a huge blue tide turnout is needed as Varsity baseball looks to return to State. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Baseball!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - MONDAY 5/5/25

- I. Attention juniors: please remain in chapel after Convocation for Ring Mass rehearsal.
- II. Tonight, Varsity Baseball hosts Barron Collier in the first game of the Regional finals. A massive Blue Tide presence is needed. First pitch is set for 7pm. Wear blue. Good luck, Varsity Baseball!

