

ANNOUNCEMENTS - TUESDAY 4/15/25

---

- I. Attention seniors: Today, Mr. Freeman will be in Oliva Courtyard distributing caps and gowns. Be sure to pick yours up during your lunch period.
- II. Attention all students: The African American Club is bringing back Jesuit's fan-favorite Mission Madness Basketball Tournament, and sign-up has begun. Please click the link under the Mission Drive module on Canvas to sign up your five-man team. Students will be able to submit their own jersey or T-shirt design for approval, and we're limiting each team to having only one Varsity Basketball player. See Hezekiah Davis or Ms. Merck with any questions.
- III. Will you be the winner of the Mission Drive Day Pickleball Tournament? Sign up today using the link on the Mission Drive Day Canvas page. See Mr. Broussard with any questions.
- IV. The Migrant Education Program is taking their annual trip to the Christ the King Carnival on Saturday, April 26th at 10am, and 100 volunteers are needed to pair with the migrant children attending. Volunteers will need to be willing to ride all the carnival rides. Interested volunteers should check MobileServe or email Coach Wood with questions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS - MONDAY 4/14/25

---

- I. Attention seniors: Tomorrow, Mr. Freeman will be in Oliva Courtyard distributing caps and gowns. Be sure to pick yours up during your lunch period.

- II. Attention all seniors who have signed up for campus ministry's breakfast reception during first period today: Please head to the MPR as soon as you're dismissed from the chapel to join Brother Ray Morris and several of our Jesuit alumni to learn more about Catholic campus ministry opportunities at Florida public universities.

- III. There are still a few spots left for seniors to attend Grad Bash next week. Please click the link in the Grad Bash module in Canvas to register or see Mrs. Maguire with any questions.

- IV. The Migrant Education Program is taking their annual trip to the Christ the King Carnival on Saturday, April 26th at 10am, and 100 volunteers are needed to pair with the migrant children attending. Volunteers will need to be willing to ride all the carnival rides. Interested volunteers should check MobileServe or email Coach Wood with questions.