

ANNOUNCEMENTS - WEDNESDAY 4/24/24

- I. All students who have earned the rank of Eagle Scout are asked to please remain in the Chapel for a photo.
- II. Grab a friend and battle to the end on mission drive day in the computer lab during Jesuit eSports' doubles smash tournament. Registration is $10 per team.
- III. The following artists were showcased in the Celebration of the Arts Juried Art Show. Top honors were awarded to sophomores Cole Ward, Ma'Chari Johnson, Gunnar Matscherz, and Max Lugo; juniors Jack Rozance, Antonio Fawcett, Tino Ciccarello, Pete Serdiuk, and Diego Garcia; and seniors Lucas Lopez, Aedan Gregory, Aden Knowles, Anthony Scardino and Nic Herrero. Best in show was merited by Diego Garcia's Fahrenheit 451 illustration in colored pencil, acrylic, and pyrography, featuring Diego setting fire to his artwork. The art show will remain up through May 10 in the Antinori Center. Congratulations, Jesuit artists!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - TUESDAY 4/23/24

- I. After eighth period, underclassmen will be called to the gym for the executive officer speeches. Seniors will be dismissed.
- II. Time is running out for you to register for the annual Spikeball Fun Day Tournament! It costs $15 for a 2-man team with a $5 discount if you bring a net. Sign up on the Student Life Canvas page or see the flyers around campus.
- III. Come to Room 304 to participate in the Mission Drive Day Chess tournament hosted by the Jesuit Chess Club. The entry fee is $5, with first and second place receiving prizes. See the student life canvas page to sign up for the tournament. Additionally, sign up for the Mission Day Pickleball Tournament using the link on Canvas. Entry fee for the tournament is $20 for each two-person team. Open play will also be available throughout the day for a reduced fee.
- IV. The deadline to sign up for the Migrant education program's trip to the Christ the King carnival is the Wednesday April 24th at noon. The first 100 volunteers to sign up will be accepted. No additional volunteers will be allowed to attend, so sign up now. Please check MobileServe for information and the sign-up link.
- V. Last night, Varsity Baseball defeated Northside Christian 2-0. McCall Biemiller earned the win, and Jonny Sosnowski earned the save. On offense, DJ Pirela and Jackson Thomas each had two hits and a run scored. The Tigers return to action Wednesday night at George Jenkins. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Baseball!

ANNOUNCEMENTS - MONDAY 4/22/24

- I. The 2024 Tampa Spartan Race will take place at Raymond James Stadium on Saturday, May 18th. The registration fee is free for any Jesuit student who is interested. The race features a run through the stadium and pirate cove as well as many obstacles. Full details will be sent out via Canvas message later today. If you are interested or up to the challenge, be sure to respond to the Canvas message. See Mr. Scicchitano with any questions.
- II. Do you have what it takes to be a Bocce champion? Can you beat Coach Kaiser and Coach Menendez? If so, sign up on Canvas for the Mission Drive Day Bocce Tournament. The cost is $10 per two-man team. Only 31 spots are available, so sign up now.
- III. Got Wicked Ping Pong Skills? Enter the Mission Drive Day Ping Pong Tournament. Entry fee is $5.00. Prizes will be awarded. Scan the QR code on the flyers around campus to enter. Brackets will be posted on the cafeteria doors Friday morning. Good luck!
- IV. Sign up soon for the three-point shootout competition on Friday for Mission Day. Cost is $10 for a two man team. Sign up with either Coach Goldman or Mr. Reddy as soon as possible.
- V. Over the weekend, the Masque completed its season with its enormously successful run of the classic musical Into the Woods. This challenging show, which played to three near-sellout crowds, represents a raising of the bar for Jesuit theatre and a fitting send-off for the biggest group of seniors the club has seen in years. Congratulations to the Jesuit Masque.
- VI. The Music department is very proud to announce that one of our students AJ Brazel , oboe player from the chamber orchestra - has made it to the finals in the International Music Contest in Charleston, South Carolina. The Competitors are from around the world including China, Japan, South Korea, Russia, Taiwan and several other countries. They are all students from prestigious universities such as Harvard, Yale, Juilliard, and Cornell. Good luck to AJ in the finale tour of the International Music Competition!
- VII. Over the weekend, Varsity Baseball went 2-0. On Friday night, they defeated Calvary Christian 2-1. Wilson Andersen and Kaden Waechter combined for the win. On offense Zane Pestalozzi and Will Burke had RBI hits. On Saturday, they defeated Hollins 8-1. Aden Knowles. Ryan Thompson, Keane Hyer, and Brady Hoar combined for the win on the mound. On offense, Jacob Lozano and Bryce Besece each had two hits, and Cannon Murtagh had four RBI's. The Tigers return to action at home tonight against Northside Christian. Congrats and good luck, Varsity Baseball!
- VIII. Track and Field won their third consecutive Private School Championship Friday at Berkeley Prep outscoring second place Berkeley Prep by 62 points. Top three finishers included Griffin More with a third place finish in the shot put; King Powell with a third place finish in the triple jump; Kolt Ohlson with a second place finish in the high jump and a first place finish in the 110 meter hurdles; Chancellor Haber and Charlie Iler with a second and third place finishes in the pole vault; Donovan Terry with a second place finish in the 100 meter and 200 meter dash along with a first place finish in the 400 meter dash; Willy Suarez with a third place finish in both the 100 and 200 meter dash; Daniel Dewey with a second place finish in the two-mile run; a first place finish in the 4 x 800 meter relay for Cesar Calero, Diego Alvarado-Borjas, Aidan Garrity, and Lando Parsons; and finally a first place finish by the 4 x 100 meter relay team of Angel Ocampo, Kameron Housey, SJ Green, and Willy Suarez. The Tigers will begin post season action on Saturday as they compete in the district championship meet at Wharton High School. Congrats and good luck, Track and Field!