

Friday, 10/16/20 Announcements

- Attention all students: After dismissal, each grade level can pick up a Gatorade and bag of snacks which will be set up by grade level at the following locations:
Seniors: Grass area between MPR and Senior Parking Lot
Juniors: Behind the Chapel by the St. Ignatius Statue
Sophomores: In front of Chapel Steps
Freshmen: Oliva Courtyard Fountain
- Attention all students and especially Sophomores: Come by campus ministry today to write a personal note to Mason Salustro who is continuing his recovery process in Atlanta. We'll mail your notes and prayers directly to Mason early next week, which will be a great consolation to him and his family during this difficult time.
- Special Olympics is hosting a Punt, Pass, and Kick Clinic for its athletes on October 24th at Raymond James Stadium. Volunteers are needed for set-up, registration, game management, and break down. Interested volunteers should check the X2vol bulletin or email Coach Wood for more information.
- Special Olympics is also in need of committed mentors to provide ongoing support and mentorship for their athletes. Interested volunteers should check the X2vol bulletin or email Coach Wood for more information.
- Do you like to create your own music? If so, consider joining the new Songwriting and Music Production Club. Club members will learn and share ideas about song creation, music software, and promotion. Contact senior Aiden Bissett or Mr. Roney. You may also see Mr. Roney in Room 1228 in Gonzmart Hall.
- Attention all students interested in trying out for JV or Varsity Soccer: Tryouts will be on Monday and Tuesday immediately after school. Please bring cleats, shin guards, and tennis shoes and meet on the practice field. Required documentation must be completed in order to tryout.
- Last night, the Jesuit Bowlers defeated Bell Creek 5-0. The team was led by Dominic Pullo with 215 and 212 and Edward Morrison with a 254.
- Tonight in Brandon, the Tiger Hockey team takes on Freedom. Puck drop is set for 8:15.
- Tonight at 7:30, Varsity Football hosts Robinson in this year's Homecoming Game.

Thursday, 10/15/20 Announcements

- Attention all students and especially Sophomores: Come by campus ministry today to write a personal note to Mason Salustro who is continuing his recovery process in Atlanta. We'll mail your notes and prayers directly to Mason early next week, which will be a great consolation to him and his family during this difficult time.

- Tonight at 7:00, the Homecoming Pep Rally will take place on Alumni Track & Field at Corral Memorial Stadium. Come show your support for this year's football team and Homecoming Court by attending. Admission is free and spectator protocols must be followed.
- Attention all students: Homecoming Week concludes tomorrow with an early dismissal at noon. Students can wear intramural dress: A Jesuit t-shirt, athletic shorts or sweatpants, and athletic shoes. Socks must be worn. After dismissal, each grade level can pick up a Gatorade and bag of snacks which will be set up by grade level at specific locations on campus.
- Keeping Tampa Bay Beautiful needs volunteers to help beautify the city of Temple Terrace by planting trees alongside the golf course on Saturday, October 17th and Saturday, October 31st. Please check the X2vol bulletin board or email Coach Wood with any questions.
- Do you like to create your own music? If so, consider joining the new Songwriting and Music Production Club. Club members will learn and share ideas about song creation, music software, and promotion. Contact senior Aiden Bissett or Mr. Roney. You may also see Mr. Roney in Room 1228 in Gonzmart Hall.
- Attention students wanting to attend tomorrow night's Homecoming football game against Robinson: A student ticket along with your student ID must be presented at the gate for free admission. Student tickets can be picked up today during period 4 & 5 in Oliva Courtyard. Tickets will be distributed on a first come first serve basis. Additional tickets for family members and friends will be on sale for $5 on these days.

Tuesday, 10/13/20 Announcements

- Attention all students: Tomorrow, Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors will take the PSAT. Students should report to their specified classroom by 8:00 A.M. Classroom assignments are posted on the doors of buildings 1, 2, 3, and the cafeteria. They are also posted in Canvas under Family Information. The PSAT should finish at approximately 11:30am and students will be dismissed after their exam. Please be sure you report to school on time. You should have number 2 pencils and a calculator. First quarter dress is required. Seniors have the day off.
- Attention all students: Homecoming Week Dress Down Days continue on Thursday with a color rush theme. If you are not appropriately dressed according to the day's theme, you must be following the school dress code. The list of dress down themes this week can be found on the Student Life Canvas Page under the Homecoming 2020 module.

- The Jesuit Dad's Club is sponsoring a Feeding Tampa Bay Mobile Pantry on Saturday, November 7th at Hillsborough Community College from 6am to 12pm. This is a great opportunity for Jesuit students to volunteer alongside their fathers to help serve the hungry throughout the Tampa Bay area. The Dad's Club is looking for 50-75 father-son pairs to help make this event a success. Sign up early via the link on X2Vol as spots will fill up fast. Please email Coach Wood with any questions.
- Keeping Tampa Bay Beautiful needs volunteers to help beautify the city of Temple Terrace by planting trees alongside the golf course on Saturday, October 17th and Saturday, October 31st. Please check the X2vol bulletin board or email Coach Wood with any questions.
- Do you like to create your own music? If so, consider joining the new Songwriting and Music Production Club. Club members will learn and share ideas about song creation, music software, and promotion. Contact senior Aiden Bissett or Mr. Roney. You may also see Mr. Roney in Room 1228 in Gonzmart Hall.
- Attention students wanting to attend Friday night's Homecoming football game against Robinson: A student ticket along with your student ID must be presented at the gate for free admission. Student tickets can be picked up today and Thursday during period 4 & 5 in Oliva Courtyard. Tickets will be distributed on a first come first serve basis. Additional tickets for family members and friends will be on sale for $5 on these days.
- Yesterday, the Jesuit Golf Team secured their 15th consecutive 2A District Championship at Temple Terrace Country Club. Led by Andrew Siffert's 3 under 69 and solid efforts by Chase Johns and Carter Dill, the team advances to regional play next week at Port Charlotte Golf Club.
- Last night was Senior Night for the Jesuit Bowlers. The senior team of Zach Grosswirth, Pro Hevia, Daniel Jung, Edward Morrison, Wyatt Swezey, and Nick Vega defeated Indian Rocks Christian 4-0 in the varsity game. Nick Vega led the way with a 202. In the second squad game, a Tiger combo of juniors and sophomores defeated IRC 3-0 with a high game of 203 posted by Nico Puente.

Monday, 10/12/20 Announcements

- Attention all students: Homecoming Week Dress Down Days continue tomorrow. Team up with another student by dressing up as matching pairs or an iconic duo. Costumes are not permitted. If you are not appropriately dressed according to the day's theme, you must be following the school dress code. The list of remaining dress down themes this week can be found on the Student Life Canvas Page under the Homecoming 2020 module.
- Do you like to create your own music? If so, consider joining the new Songwriting and Music Production Club. Club members will learn and share ideas about song creation, music software, and promotion. Contact senior Aiden Bissett or Mr. Roney. You may also see Mr. Roney in Room 1228 in Gonzmart Hall.

- On Saturday, the Cross Country team competed in the inaugural Private School Championship. The Varsity team took third place. The scorers were Adam Dieck, Kevin Beck-Perez, Andrew Fredericks, Chazz Brazzeal and Isaac Addison. Dominating their race, the JV team took 1st place as 10 Tigers made up the top 12. Leading wire to wire, Logan Bates won the race and was followed by Ricky Gonzalez, Callahan Bonifant, Gabe Brazzeal, Christopher Margetis, and Anthony Aspiro.
- On Friday night, the Varsity football team defeated CCC 45-10. Junior Vandeross compiled a three-score night with touchdown grabs of 10 and 25 yards and a 65-yard punt return for a TD. Joe Pesansky completed 11-of-17 passes for 148 yards and three touchdown passes including one to Jadyr Girard. Joe Smith added a rushing touchdown while Luke Knight led the offense during the second half. On defense, Caleb Williams and Tyler Corish each had interceptions. On special teams, Ty Cabassa connected on a field goal.