

Monday, 9/21/20 Announcements

- The Masque, Jesuit's award-winning theatre club, is excited to announce auditions for its fall production of TWELVE INCOMPETENT JURORS, a hilarious parody of the similarly named courthouse drama. No experience is necessary, and inexperienced actors are encouraged to audition. For safety reasons, the production will be live-streamed, and actors will be masked and socially distanced. Auditions will take place on Zoom on Friday and Monday beginning at 4pm. To reserve an audition slot or to sign up for the show's technical crew, contact Mr. Miller via Canvas.
- Attention all students interested in Wrestling: Stop by the wrestling room after school on Tuesday, October 6th to pick up paperwork and information about the upcoming season. Contact Coach Basile with any questions.
- Beating out 25 other teams, the Cross Country team ran to a double win at the Mitchell Invitational on Saturday. Led by Adam Dieck and Lawson McLeod, Varsity took first. Other scorers for the Tigers were Kevin Beck-Perez, Wolfgang Louk, and Danny O'Leary. The JV squad took first with Devin Stevens leading the way for the Tigers.
