- Volunteers are needed for the following community service opportunities: Villa Madonna Catholic School for its fall festival on Saturday; the Cameron K. Gallagher Foundation for its 5k race on Saturday at Al Lopez Park; and the Tampa Pig Jig for next Saturday, October 20. Check the X2Vol bulletin board or see Coach Wood with any questions.
- Last night, Varsity Bowling defeated Calvary Christian 4-1. Robert Morrison bowled a 204 and a 223. Trace Nuss rolled a 204 and a 211, and Greg Davis had a 216. Congratulations Tiger Bowlers!

- Attention seniors – please remain in the chapel after convocation for important information about graduation.
- On Saturday, the Masque competed in the District Thespian Festival at Gaither. Jesuit Thespians earned a record 13 Excellents: two in costume design, three in duet acting, four in ensemble acting, and four in monologue performance. Four troupe members also won four superiors to become qualify for the Florida State Thespian Festival in March:
  - Riley Buchanan – monologues
  - Joseph Lopez – monologues
  - Jimmy Grammig and Nicholas Asher – duet acting
  - Buchanan and Xander Arena – duet acting

To top off a record-setting day, Arena and Buchanan's duet scene was selected as a "Critic's Choice" performance, earning the duo the opportunity to perform in the Showcase at the end of the event.

Congratulations, Tiger Thespians!

- Last week the golf team played in the Vinoy Classic in St. Petersburg, while others competed against King. The team placed third out of seventeen teams in the Vinoy Classic with a team score of 312, led by a top five individual score of 75 by Grayson Maddox. Other notables were Jimmy Paradise with a score of 77 and Alex Siffert with a 79. The team defeated King by 28 strokes, led by Chris Konefal, Carter Dill, Donnie Beard and Marshall Rowe. Congrats Tiger Golf!
- On Friday, Cross Country competed in the County Championships. JV finished third out of seventeen teams with Aston Buchanan and Issac Addison leading the way. Varsity ran to a sixth place finish out of thirty-four teams. Lawson McLeod and Parker Maddox each ran their best race of the season to lead the way for the Tigers. Congrats Tiger Cross Country!
- On Friday night, Varsity Football defeated Kissimmee Osceola's 21-7 to snap the Kowboys' 29-game regular season win streak. Dane Belton opened the scoring with a punt return for a touchdown. Larry Hodges scored rushing touchdown, and Zach Meurer returned a fourth-quarter fumble for a touchdown. Jacob Tauber and Myles Coates each had sacks while Junior Vandeross had a fumble recovery and hauled in an interception. Two other standouts on defense were Christian Beatty and Jaden Pask. With this signature win, the team improved to 6-0 on the season. Congratulations Varsity Football!
