

Friday 8/23/19 Announcements

- Back-to-School Dance tickets will be sold during lunch periods today. Tickets will also be sold at the door tonight. The cost is $5 per individual or $5 per couple. In order to enter the dance, please be sure to bring your Student ID. For more information, visit the Back-to-School Dance module on the Student Life Canvas Page.
- Auditions for the Masque's production of The Front Page are today in the MPR. The audition starts promptly at 4:00; all actors are asked to arrive by 3:45 in order to complete paperwork. No experience is necessary, but all actors are asked to present a thirty to sixty second comedic monologue. It is also necessary to bring a comprehensive list of any conflicts of which you are aware through mid-November. See Mr. Miller with any questions.
- The Golf Team made their annual drive down I-75 for their first tournament of the season to Capri Isles Golf Club in Venice. Jimmy Paradise and Andrew Siffert were able to persevere through the rain-soaked course to shoot 76 and 77 respectively. Tiger Golf's next event is Tuesday, August 27th at 3:30 versus Tampa Catholic. Congrats and good luck, Tiger Golf!
- The Tiger Bowlers opened their season last night with 5-0 win over St. Pete Catholic. The team was led by Michael Quackenbush with a 213 and Edward Morrison with a 201. Congratulations, Jesuit Bowlers!
- Last night, JV Football defeated CCC 33-7. On offense, Dylan Causey had a touchdown, and Jack Agliano had two rushing touchdowns. The defense was led by John Kilkelly and Colin Causey. Hayes Greep added an interception. On special teams, Jarriett Buie had a return for a touchdown, and Tyler Girsch added a touchdown on a blocked punt. Congratulations, JV football!
- Tonight, Varsity Football kicks off its season at home against Plant City. A strong Blue Tide presence is needed at the game. There will be a paint-up at 6:30 in The Commons, which will be followed by a run-out at 7:10. Kickoff is at 7:30. Remember to wear blue. Good luck, Varsity Football!
